

PROGRAMMA DI INGLESE

LICEO SCIENTIFICO

CLASSE III

FUNCTIONS

Describing a person

Telling a story

Talking about people

Describing a house or flat

Talking about eating habits

Talking about sport

Giving travel directions

Talking about abilities

Talking about media

Talking about work

GRAMMAR

Present simple and continuous

Action and no action verbs

Past tenses

Future forms

Present perfect and simple past

Present perfect continuous

Comparatives and superlatives

Must/have to/should (obligation)

Must/may/might/can't (deduction)

First/second/third conditionals

Usually and used to

Quantifiers

Articles

Gerunds and infinitives

Reported speech

Passive

Relative clauses

Question tags and indirect questions

VOCABULARY

Food and restaurants; family and personality; money; transport and travel; mobile phones; appearances; education; house; relationships; work; shopping; cinema.

LITERATURE

AN INTRODUCTION

- What is Literature? Features of a literary text, Literary Genres.

EARLY BRITAIN (FROM THE ORIGINS TO 1066)

- Historical Background: Early Britain; A History of Invasions, Stonehenge; Britain after the Norman Conquest.
- Literary Background: Anglo-Saxon Literature; Beowulf.

MIDDLE AGES (1066-1485)

- Historical Background: Wars, dynasties and social classes.
- Literary Background: Medieval Prose and Medieval Drama.
- Books: Geoffrey Chaucer: The Canterbury Tales.

THE RENAISSANCE (1485-1603)

- Historical Background: The English Renaissance, The Tudors and the Reformation, The Reign of Elizabeth I, The Battle for Naval Supremacy.
- Cultural Background: The Spirit of Renaissance curiosity, The centrality of man, The rise of modern science.
- Literary Background: Literature during the Renaissance, The Art of Drama, Petrarch and the English Sonnet, Shakespeare.

ISTITUTO "G. NASTA"